CCO Statement regarding Steven Perry
July 20, 2026

CCO is aware of the criminal charges brought against Steven Perry of St. Thomas Ontario.

As per an undertaking with CCO, Steven Perry's registration status has changed to the inactive class of registration. While in the inactive class, Mr. Perry is not entitled to practice chiropractic in any capacity, nor hold himself out as someone who is qualified to practice chiropractic in Ontario, nor use the title "Doctor" or "chiropractor"

In addition, Mr. Perry will not apply to change his status to the active class of registration until the criminal charges laid on May 14, 2026 and June 29, 2026 (and any subsequent charges) are concluded, and he has complied with the registration requirements determined by CCO.

A copy of the current charges against Mr. Perry, the complete undertaking entered into July 17, 2026, and the outcome of a previous disciplinary process involving him, are posted on the CCO's public register https://cco.on.ca/quick-links/public-register/.

In accordance with the Regulated Health Professionals Act, individuals who may have been sexually abused by a member of a regulatory college may be eligible for funding for therapy and counselling. More information can be found at https://cco.on.ca/complaints/funding-for-therapy/.
