

Requirements for Returning to the General Class of Certificate of Registration

This chart serves as a guideline for members of the Registration Committee when making decisions relating to applicants returning to the General Class of Certificate of Registration. The Registration Committee will base its decision on the individual facts presented and may use its discretion consistent with CCO regulation and policy when deciding what an applicant must do to satisfy the committee of professional competency. If there are any inconsistencies between this chart and any CCO legislation, regulation, policy and guideline, the relevant legislation, regulation, policy or guideline will govern.
