Congratulations to Dr. Jarrod Goldin, who has been acclaimed.

Council and Committee Members

Please note that Policy P-011: Conflict of Interest for Council, Non-Council Committee Members and Council Appointed Members ("Committee Members") provides in part:

It is considered a conflict of interest for a Council member or committee member to use their position on Council or a committee to:

Campaign publicly for or on behalf of any person, other than themselves:

- in any election to CCO Council ...

[e.g., it would be inappropriate for a candidate to use election material which includes comments such as "endorsed by Dr. X, CCO Committee Chair," etc.]. ...

Candidates

CCO will review all material submitted by candidates for general consistency with the campaign guidelines in the notice of election and the principles of fair, accurate and appropriate election statements and, by analogy, standards of practice and guidelines related to communication to the public and will forward a response to the candidate following the review. If you have any questions about any campaign material or campaign activities, contact CCO. All communications by or on behalf of any candidates must be respectful and professional.

Please note that the deadline for candidates to withdraw from the election is February 24, 2026 by 4 p.m. (please refer to the notice of election and nomination guide dated January 2026).

All candidates are required to attend a virtual orientation session on February 24, 2026, 6 p.m. – 8 p.m., in accordance with the notice of election and nomination guideline dated January 2026. A link to this orientation session will be forwarded to candidates.

All successful candidates will be asked to participate in orientation and training sessions relating to CCO's public interest role and mandate and will be required to provide a clear criminal records check, as well as to review and sign various documents, namely the confidentiality undertaking, Non-harassment Policy, and Code of Conduct, before receiving information or attending meetings. All Council meeting dates are posted on the CCO website. The first Council meeting after the elections is scheduled for April 23, 2026. Internal elections to compose CCO's committees are scheduled for April 24, 2026 (8:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.).

Thank you to all candidates for expressing an interest in participating in the self-regulation of the chiropractic profession by serving on CCO Council. Please contact me if you have any questions or concerns.
